

Media & Communications Ltd is a highly successful Worthing based company established in 1995. We are a specialist communications hardware supplier with an enviable reputation in our industry.

With outstanding organic growth year on year, and an ever-expanding portfolio we are now looking to grow our account management team.

We have a strong track record of staff retention, so this is an exciting opportunity to become part of a highly successful division.

THE ROLE

Our team speak to a range of business and public sector customers, all who have an existing business relationship with us. We have a wealth of data accumulated from our online presence.

Our sites include Best4systems, Best4headsets and Best4safety.

We are looking for people to mine this data, generate leads and familiarize themselves with our portfolio. We want successful candidates to grow through this role into account management positions.
